regret the sudden death of Mr. Kenny Wilson, school engineer, last Sunday.

A home

is still being sought for next year's exchange student to Riley. The money has been raised. Check into the possibilities of your providing a home for the student. The deadline is pressing.

Plans are being laid for the six-page tournament issue, on sale after the next issue. Individual pictures of the varsity team members, a team picture, and a coaches picture will be included. Plus all the regular Hi-Times news and features.

The Hi-Times

presented its seventh broadcast over WETL, the School City radio station, yesterday. Dave Fleming was interviewed about his proposed honor system for Riley. The Hi-Times broadcasts weekly, every Thursday, from 8:30 to 8:45 a.m. News, sports, predictions, editorials, and interviews are the fare, producing a program that attempts to get behind the news and find the WHY of the WHAT.

Debaters spar with Bears; argue school question this season

Mr. Charles Goodman's debaters started their actual inter-school debating season last Wednesday against Central.

In non-conference competition, the debates were held at Central High School. This is to be the beginning of a series of practice debates between Riley and Central.

Handling the two debates for Riley were: Bob Lerman, Bruce BonDurant, Richard Reminih, and Gordon Tolle. The former two debated affirmative (in agreement with the resolution) while the latter held the negative position (against the resolution).

The debate topic this year, as has already been hinted, is in the form of a resolution. It reads: Resolved, that the United States adopt the essential features of the Russian system of education.

This is the first year that these practice debates have been held. The debaters also have other new events planned. Besides participating in the Conference Forensic League, Mr. Goodman and the team will take part in various invitational meets.

Assembly group III to hear and see story of 'Yankee' voyage

Assembly group III, comprised of grades 11 and 12, will hear lecturer Christopher Sheldon and view the film, "The Adventurous Yankee", the 'Yankee' being a sailing ship of which Mr. Sheldon was a crew member. A color film, it will be presented next Thursday morning.

Although a young man, Mr. Sheldon has had a variety of experiences at sea, in addition to the 40,000 miles on the Yankee.

An interest in people of all corners of the earth prompted Mr. Sheldon to take the trip. As official photographer for the expedition, he was responsible for all pictures now being used by members of the Yankee cruise.

Having studied at Princeton, Mr. Sheldon also received degrees from the Universities of Madrid and San Marcos, in Lima, Peru. Now, in addition to lecture work, he and his wife are organizing another trip around the world on their Brigantine Albatross.

Mr. Sheldon was one of two men selected to present the story of the Yankee to the schools. Omnibus and Life Magazine also reported some of the adventures of the voyage.

One of these adventures was the stop at Pitcairn Island, home of the descendants of the mutineers of the 'Bounty'. Other places which the voyage visited were: the Panama Canal, Galapagos, Tahiti, Thailand, Cambodia, Bora Bora, Tonga, New Hebrides, New Guinea, Bali, and Africa.

Freshman dance one week away; tickets on sale since Monday

Holding their first social event as a class, the Freshmen are hard at work on their upcoming dance, "Superstitious Swing", to be held next Friday, February 13, in the gym.

Featuring the music of the Riley Dance Band, the dance will be open only to Riley freshmen, and will be held from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Tickets, which went on sale last Monday, are 35c per person and will be sold until next Friday, at 4:00 p.m. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Selling tickets are Wendy Lambka and her ticket committee, class officers, and homeroom social chairmen. The class hopes to sell between 300 and 400 tickets.

Entertainment for the dance will include the crowning of a Miss and Mr. Superstition and a carnival in the back gym. To be open from 7:30 to 8:00, the carnival has been planned by Carol Neville and her entertainment committee.

Following are the number and grades of the homerooms by per cent of students on the honor roll. Within each per cent group, the homerooms have a higher per cent the farther down the column they are.

Honor roll soars again; girls top boys almost 2 to 1

Again, as at the last grading period, students set a new record as far as per cent on the honor roll goes. Of 1889 students, 29.6 per cent made the honor roll. This is 560 students, the largest number in recent years.

These figures compare with 556 students, comprising 29.0 per cent of the student body, who made the honor roll at the last nine weeks' grading period. That also was somewhat of a record.

Qualifications

Qualification for the honor roll is based on the number value of a student's letter grades. An A is worth four points, a B, three, a C, two, a D, one, and F, zero.

A student taking five solid subjects must receive 15 points for a spot on the honor roll. Students with four solids must earn 12 points for honor roll eligibility. These are both equivalent to a B average.

A second requirement is that the student have no L's among the character estimates in each subject and homeroom.

True to form, the girls again topped the boys in per cent of numbers on the honor roll. Of 941 boys, 20.4 per cent were on the honor roll; of the 948 girls, 38.9 per cent were on the honor roll.

In every class, grade, and section, the girls had higher per cents of their num-

Council reviews semester; gives future plans; homerooms elect semester representatives

Although officers of the Student Council remain the same during the second semester, elections were held the past week in more than fifty homerooms to elect new homeroom representatives.

A meeting of the new reps will be held next Wednesday at 7:30 a.m., in the auditorium, the regular time and place for all the meetings.

All meetings are open to the student body and the visiting students may take part in the discussion, although they carry no voting power.

Twenty-four Future Nurses given awards at pinning ceremony

Twenty-four members of the Future Nurses Club, advised by Miss Helen Cashman, received awards in the club's annual pinning ceremonies, yesterday, in the library, at 7:00 p.m.

Club pins were awarded to those members who had been active in club functions and had been members of the club for two or more years.

Speakers for the evening were Jeanne Peterson and Carolee Klinger, both Riley graduates. Miss Peterson is presently attending Memorial School of Nursing and Miss Klinger attends Holy Cross Central School of Nursing, at St. Joseph's Hospital. Both girls spoke of their classes and activities at their respective schools.

Planning and running the entire program were members of the club who received their pins last year.

Receiving pins last night were: Barbara Bernhardt, Sandra Allison, Sandra Con, Nancy Custer, Carol Halasi, Sharon Hoke, Mardell Ivankovics, Judy Klinefirth, Mary Knechel, Carol Knuth, Key Kruggel, Connie Libey, Sonja Lindbergh, and Jean Long.

Others were: Nancy McCann, Carol Minglin, Barbara Nicklas, Marjorie Parks, Nancy Pavey, Janice Rickel, Jackie Scott, Sandra Tansey, Pat Weaver, and Beverly Whiting.

7%-23%: 218, 7A; 210G, 9B; 322, 9A; 306, 10A; 313, 9A; 213, 9B; 202, 10A; 101, 8B; 210A, 9B; 106, 11A; 219, 11A; 100, 8B.

25%-32.5%: cafe, 9A; 222, 7B; 303, 12B; 214, 7B; 206, 12A; 213H, 9B; 114, 10B; 307, 12B; 316, 7B; 112, 11B.

bers on the honor roll than the boys. One exception — the 7A boys who had 9.1 per cent of their number on the honor roll, compared to 4.2 per cent of the girls.

Age Doesn't Matter

Age wasn't of too much importance in this honor roll, however, because the junior and senior highs were about even in per cent of students on the honor roll — 31.3 per cent for the junior high and 29.2 per cent for the senior high. As is shown, the younger students had a slight edge in the overall per cents. This is not a common situation; that is, the older students usually are on top scholastically.

This latter fact, however, was supported in the comparison of the classes and grade levels. While the junior high beat the senior high, the 12A students came through with 53.3 per cent of their group on the honor roll — the largest of any major group, save the 12A girls who had 60.0 per cent of their group on the honor roll.

Among the boys, the 12A's scored again with their 48.0 per cent being almost double their nearest rival — the 7B boys, with 26.6 per cent.

Homeroom 217 Top

Homeroom 217, an 8B room sponsored by Mrs. McMillan, had the highest per school year, each homeroom now elects two persons — an alternate and a regular member. This is designed to assure each room being represented at almost every meeting.

With this ruling in effect last semester, attendance at the meetings was almost 100% in the early part of the year; later it dropped to 60-70%. One-half of the regular membership of the Council — last semester it was 54 — is needed to make a quorum; that is, a sufficient number to vote on most motions.

With the semester behind them, the Council can look back on several major, some minor projects. The semester began with a tea honoring the faculty.

Other Projects Listed

Next came the orientation program for new students. Then followed the annual Washington-Riley Roundup. In October came a bonfire dance and the State Student Council meeting, to which Riley sent six representatives, including S.C. advisor, Mr. Claude Wolfram.

Assemblies and the campaign for funds resulted in the largest amount ever raised in Riley's five years of bringing a foreign student to America, through student contributions. More than $900 was raised, due in part to the rise in group contributions. The request for group giving is also believed to have affected the individual giving in a positive way.

Recreation dances and the election of a basketball queen and court were other activities during last semester. A recreation dance was also to have been held this week.

Future Plans Discussed

Still in the discussion stage at the end of last semester were the following:

(1) an honor system, proposed by alternate Dave Fleming, who experienced the program at his former school. Many questions were asked and an interest shown by the other members, but nothing beyond that.

(2) an amendment to have the homerooms pay their reps' dues, rather than the representatives themselves paying them, as is done now. The dues, however, are used to purchase pins which are awarded members after three semesters of service — an argument for keeping the present system.

(3) holding elections for next year's officers in early May, with two (rather than the present one) days for voting. Campaigns would begin on Monday, with assemblies Wednesday, voting Thursday and Friday.

(4) selling of "Riley Wildcat" license plate tags, probably next week. These are small strips of metal which fit across the top of a license plate.

cent of its students on the honor roll of any homeroom — 77.7 per cent.

That room was followed by 302, 12B, Miss Wyrick — and 207, 8B, Mrs. Leatherman — both with 48 per cent on the honor roll; 200, 11B, Mrs. Bohan — 46 per cent; and, 317, 10B, Mr. Martin — 45.7 per cent.

Following are the 25 students on the honor roll who made all A's and were taking four subjects:

Judy Veynovich, Beverly Wright, Elsie Horvath, Carol Botich, Patricia Czar, Patricia McCormick, Barbara Van Vlaspolder, Mike Hehl, Nancy Newhouse, Mary Rudolph, Kathleen Hojnacki, David McKinney, David Means, Ann Richards, Mary Beth Allen, Betty Sausley.

Others were: Carol Burke, Judy Bullinger, Bob Lerman, Ken Barna, Randy Brooks, Diana Schinbeckler, Mike Shapiro, Charlene Sarka, and Ken Kindy.

Following are the 25 students on the honor roll who were taking five solids and received all A's:

Steve Roberts, Ray Wight, Roberta Shapero, Rebecca Newhard, Judith Areen, Frances Johnette Frick, Bruce BonDurant, Kit Lovell, Patricia Miller, Cheryl Wist, Georgia Polovina, Carolyn Czenar, Kathy Krider, Elaine Kifer, Tom Copeland, Allan Singleton.

Others were: Peg Dueringer, Melinda Gibbons, Mary Hall, Marilyn Fritz, Beverly Bowers, Judith Horvath, Mary Jo Bruerd, Jerry Lerman, and Graydon Reinehl.

Detailed per cents — both homeroom and overall — will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Time to grow

At the time of a National Honor Society induction, such as the one last month, many questions are raised as to the purposes and methods of the Society. Realizing this, the Hi-Times, one of its weekly radio broadcasts, interviewed the president and treasurer of the NHS, drew some conclusions, and made some comments.

Some question the factors which the NHS considers in choosing members; of the four factors, one is scholarship, the others are character, leadership, and service.

To understand this, one must realize that the Society, although formed to raise scholastic standards, is actually an honor society, in which scholarship plays only a routine role.

One must further realize that the NHS sponsors such diverse projects as dances, scholarship assemblies, bonfires, and the awarding of an honor roll plaque to a homeroom.

This gives the Society three functions, probably in this order: (1) a service organization to promote healthy student activities, (2) a scholastic organization to promote an interest in scholarship, and (3) an honor organization to accept as members students outstanding in the above qualities.

Note the preceding paragraph, and then realize that the Society is comparatively new at Riley, since its revival here. It must be given a chance to grow and develop its aims. The honor roll plaque is only in its first year, the revived Riley chapter of the NHS in its second or third. As an honor society, it has done well; as a service group, it ranks high; as a scholastic organization, it has yet to discover its aims. Give it time and room to age, for with age comes quality, usually.

The Students Speak...

Edited by Pat Miller and Georgia Polovina. Our timely question for this week is: "What is your opinion of our honor roll system? Is it too easy? How does it compare with other honor roll systems?"

Kathy Kuk, 11A: I think the honor system and all it implies is a goal we should all try to achieve. More students could get on the honor roll and receive merit pins if they studied a little harder.

Dave Rodibaugh, 10A: Our honor roll system is too easy. To me, it has become something more or less taken for granted. Other schools have higher requirements for their honor roll; this makes it harder to meet that goal. Raising the requirements of our honor roll gives the student who meets these requirements just a little more honor. Because that is the purpose of the system, I favor a raise in the honor roll requirements.

Kent Wilcox, 10A: From the percentage on the honor roll, I would say that it is not the honor roll system that needs changing, it is the studying system. I don't feel as though a change would do much good, as the students who are on the honor roll and really belong there would be there even if the number of points needed were raised.

George VanDerHeyden, 12A: I do believe our present system is too easy. Both Central and Adams have a higher system. It would be better if we set fourteen points as the minimum.

Bill Mikulas, 11A: The present honor system is too easy on two counts; first, a person may acquire the sufficient number of points in subjects in which he is strong, while he is deficient in others; second, a person may take many subjects in which it is easy to receive a high grade, yet these points count as much as the points acquired in math, science, etc.

Kathy Krider, 10A: I don't like our honor roll system because it is based on points rather than grades. For instance, it's possible to make the honor roll with three A's and a C, or even a D. It doesn't seem right that anything below a B should be allowed on the honor roll. I think it would be better if we had a system based on grades only.

We have thrashed this subject out before, but it is one that we should all spend some time thinking about. Let us know what YOU think about the awards system — maybe your idea can help solve this problem or start a new line of thought. —Georgia and Pat.

Swimmers give reporter facts about themselves; also view team's prospects

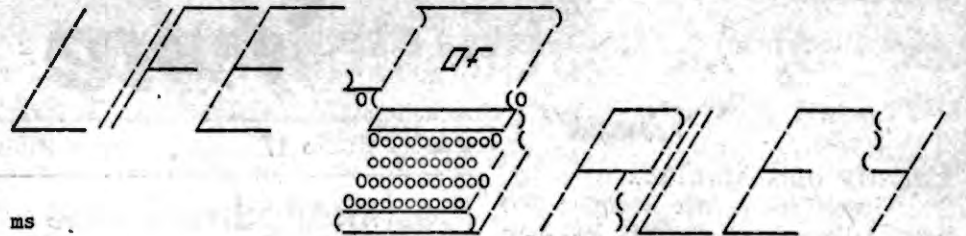

by Pat Markwith
An "old-timer" on the Riley swimming team is Tom Carmichael, a 13B. On the team for three years, Tom has won trophies for state swim meets, various swimming ribbons, a varsity letter, and the G. A. Cooper Award for Lifesaving. Asked how he thought the team could be bettered, Tom replied, "The last three years, teams worked harder than this year's team. There are boys on this team who really work hard, but there are those who hinder the team greatly by cutting up during practice. I think that next year the coach should keep only the boys who would really work on the team." Next year's team should be good, Tom prophesies, even though some seniors who helped "pull in the points" in the tough meets will graduate. There are several freshmen who, if they will just keep working, will soon be the backbone of a strong team.

Tom's best swimming events are the 100-yard freestyle and the 200-yard freestyle.

Curious as to how swimming meets are really scored, I asked Tom to explain. "In each event, first place get five points, second place gets three points, and third place gets one point. The places are all according to the fastest time in each event except diving. In diving it is the form and timing that is judged. The team with the greatest number of points wins."

Twelve A Gary Kins, a member of the Riley swim team for one year, has won two varsity letters. His strongest event is the 100 yard breaststroke.

"If more boys with swimming ability would try out for the team, it certainly would help," says Gary. So, fellas — how about trying out for the team, next time try-outs are held? One of Gary's main "gripes" is that not enough students support the team. The inter-city meets with teams such as Adams and Central are attended pretty well, he says, but the out-of-town meets — well!

Hi Gang!
This is Bonnie, your beat reporter, (beat, not beatnick) coming to you from my corner in the Staff Room. 'Beat' just about sums up my feelings to the new semester — WOW! what a 'rat race'. I've filled out so many little yellow and white cards that I now have a chronic case of writers' cramp. I think I've discovered the reason why we have to make a 'gazillion' cards listing our programs on each card — We, as teenagers, seem to always be losing things (me especially) and we use this as our always truthful (?) excuse for not having assignments and so forth when they're due — consequently, by the time you have written your schedule on a 'gazillion' cards, it supposedly has penetrated the remembering portion of your cerebellum and even if you lose your copy of your schedule, you should know it well enough to flounder your way through the masses (messes might be better you say?) and get to the right room at the right time. If this system is supposed to work though, how do you account for the sheepish grins on our Rileyites' faces as they creep into a guidance class fifteen minutes after the bell has rung and announce that they "... a, well a, ... gosh Sir, guess I goofed didn't I?" Want to answer the question Phyllis Farkas? L.O.R.

At long last we have the new cut I've been promising you since last December. It's been said that a promise is no more than an idealistic dream put into words — perhaps this idealistic dream turned into a nightmare however.

The 'Cat' responsible for our old Life of Riley drawing did make a new one. The merits of the new one over the old one were extremely questionable and while in the process of deciding which cut was the least bad, oh darn this crazy typewriter!! I mean, of course, which cut of the two was the best (BECAUSE THEY WERE BOTH SO GOOD??) Mike Shapiro contributed the one you see reigning over our column at the present time. The comment of our old cut's drawer to our new cut's drawer was, "I sure am glad they put your initials on your drawing." With this we leave the new cut, as it may be, to spend the rest of the school year presiding over our 'unique' column. Many thanks for the new drawng Mike, may it rest in peace!

Mr. Alfred E. Neuman contributed this little verse:

If love is blind
And lovers can't see,
Why in the world
Doesn't someone love me?

How in the world can we find someone to love you Alfred if we don't know who you are? You let us see you and we'll find some one to 'love' you if we have to blind-fold them first.

L.O.R.
Holding court at Friday's basketball game were Donna Schroeder, Mary Ann Roose, Linda Grieder, Charlene Sarka, Maureen Sieron, Shirley Lenyo and Barb Foster. Our lovely queen was Bernice Kerchaert. Congratulations to our court and their escorts who were Don Hanish escorting the queen, Wayne Wenzel, Dave Vollmer, Carl Kotlowski, Ronnie Elliot, Chuck Carlin and Dale Dabrowiak for the beautiful half-time ceremony. Student Council president, Mike Shapiro, crowned the queen.

L.O.R.
If you think I'm really babbling this week, you're right, I am. After the results of the survey conducted by the Hi-Times (on what you like to read and what columns and features you most enjoy in the paper) is completed, our Editor in Chief may decide to emulsify L.O.R. and replace it with an 'American Bookstand' column or a 'Be Kind to Radicals' corner, featuring articles by such well known persons as Tim Pickering, Randy Brooks, Jerry Lerman, Doug Schwepler, Tom Butters, and John Harvey.

L.O.R.
Now that I've expounded my warped ideas on various things, I'll close with a few 'sillies' to make you grin again.

L.O.R.
"Quick Mom, get the marshmallow! Baby sister's on fire."

L.O.R.
Did you hear about the guy who invented a SQUARE bathtub in order to do away with the bathtub ring?

L.O.R.
Speaking of squares, I'm closing for now and cleaning out my corner so Bev can get a column ready for the next time we meet to chat again about 'The Life of Riley.'

—Bonnie.

People... of the Times

by Bev Husvar
Senior, Herman West, has a pretty busy semester with all his school work, school activities, and of course being on the basketball team takes quite a bit of time and effort. His future plans are college for the first time.

One of the funniest things that Herm can remember happening to him was during the past Cross-Country season when the team went to run Goshen and North Side, he found out after he got there and started to dress that he had left his shorts back at Riley!! What a situation to be in.

Like any other guy Herm has pet peeves too. His happens to be driving the family car. That always seems to be a problem!

Fried chicken and whipped potatoes, and listening to his favorite record, "All American Boy" seems to be a good way to spend some leisure time for Herm. But besides these, he also has some hobbies that are more constructive. That's listening to records and reading good books!!!

As far as changes are concerned for Riley, Herman just has one big suggestion for Riley. He would like to see a bigger building for all of the students we have here at Riley.

When he was asked about our basketball season this year this was his comment. "I think that we have been playing good basketball. We haven't looked too impressive at times, but on the other hand no one looks perfect all of the time!"

Adams beat Wildcats; St. Joe wins 61-53; record stands at 7-8!

by Louis Swedarsky

Coach Lenny Rzeszewski's Wildcats had the mid-season blues last week-end as they lost two tough ones. They dropped one to Adams, 69-58, and lost to St. Joseph, 61-53.

The Wildcats were out to make it two in a row over the Eagles this season. Riley jumped off to a 20-12 first quarter lead, but the Eagles stormed back to cut Riley's margin to four points 30-26 at the intermission. Adams tied the game up 43 all at the end of the third period. Glen Nevelle fouled out and made Riley's control of the boards almost nil the rest of the game. It was still tied 52-52 late in the last quarter when Buddy McKnight, Adams' big gun, swished in two from the sideline to put Adams ahead to stay. Thus, the Eagles avenged an earlier loss to the Wildcats by soundly thrashing them in a hard fought game 69-58.

Phil Grundy was high for Riley with 14. Bob Davidson netted 13, and Glen Nevelle chipped in 12.

Upset By St. Joe

The Wildcats dropped below the 500 mark when they lost the St. Joe game. Riley couldn't break through St. Joe's zone defense for close in shots and had to fire away from outside. St. Joe grabbed 35 rebounds as Riley could only manage 22. They knotted the score, 43 all at the end of the third period, but they couldn't keep pace with the Indians. St. Joseph turned in a surprising upset in high school basketball circles by downing Riley 61-53.

George VanDerHeyden was high for Riley with 20. Phil Grundy chipped in 14. Riley now has won seven and lost eight.

Kittens grab two wins; tromp Nuner, Madison

Doug Simpson's Jr. High Kittens racked up two more victories to their growing list of wins last week as they romped over their foes.

The Kittens completely outplayed Madison as they waltzed to an easy 48-16 win. Top scorer was Mike Grundy with 13 points.

Nuner provided a little more competition but fell almost as easily. The score was 46-24. Grundy again led the scoring this time with 10 points. The two wins give the Kittens a respectable record of 9 wins and only 4 losses.

The usual starters are Mike Grundy, Joe Szucs, Dave Stonecipher, Tom Sault and Bill Adams.

David Fleming shoots 617 for record total

Dave Fleming, making 31 marks in 32 attempts, led the Pinboys to a 3-1 decision over the Pinbusters by putting games of 223, 203, and 191 together to post a new record high series for the R.H.S. Bowling Loop of 617. This bettered by 43 pins the previous high held by Dave Biddle. Biddle claimed the second highest series with 547, and Phil Renner shot 502 for third high.

Fleming's 223 was the best single game of the day also. Biddle had a 221 to take second, and Fleming's 203 was third best.

The Swingers continued to widen their league lead, now 3 points, as they defeated the Pinkillers 3-1. The third tie game of the year was recorded, the split giving the Fireballs a 2½-1½ decision of the Alley Aces.

Freshmen roll onward; top Panthers, Maroons

by Jim Jewell

Coach Lewandowski's Freshmen Wildcats added the tenth and eleventh wins to their record last week, January 27 and 29, and remained undefeated in the conference.

At Riley, they had no trouble defeating Washington for the third time this season. Riley led 20-11 by halftime and was never behind. They had an eleven point margin twice, at 22-11 and 27-16. With a few minutes to go, Washington came within six points, 26-20 but the game ended at 36-24.

Playing in the new Mishawaka gym, on Jan. 29, the frosh defeated a tall frosh Mishawaka team, 40-34. Although Mishawaka outscored Riley in the second half, 22-17, they were unable to overcome the 23-12 lead which Riley held at the half.

The scoring was well divided in both games. Nine of the eleven boys who played against Washington and seven of the nine in the Mishawaka game scored.

Victory-minded 'Cats host Elkhart in loop game; go to Lebanon tomorrow, tangle with LaPorte

by Bob Bernhardt

Coach Lennie Rzeszewski's varsity cagers, plagued by a three game losing streak, try to get back on to their winning ways tonight when they host the rough Elkhart Blue Blazers in an ENI-HSC tussle. The 'Cats travel to Lebanon

Saturday for a non-conference game. On Tuesday the 'Cats host LaPorte in a game postponed by the recent snow-storm.

Elkhart, who were the 1958 regional champs, beat the 'Cats last season by a 52-51 score. This season the Blazers are led by Steve Reim. He is a 6½ senior. Their big men are 6-2 Wally Summers and 6-3 John Birdsey. Other top men include 6½ Gary Mann, 6-0 Dale Fonner, and 5-9 Jack Merrit. Elkhart's overall record is 9 wins and 7 losses. They are 5-1 in the conference. In their last game they topped Goshen for the 36th straight time in the history of their rivalry. The score was 70-65.

Lebanon is 3-11

Lebanon is in a rebuilding year. They have won only three of fourteen games. Included on the squad are five sophomores. The tallest soph is 6-5 Mark Carvin. He is backed up by two other tall boys that could give Lebanon a front line averaging 6-4. They are 6-4 junior Mike Giger and 6-3½ senior Tony Edens. Others on the squad at 6-2 Phil Selby, 6-2 John Hedge, and 5-9 Stan Collins.

Possible Fifth Man

Coach Rzeszewski's season long search for a fifth starter with rebounding and scoring power may have ended last Friday against Adams. Bob Davidson, 6-4 junior, rebounded well and dropped in 13 points. However against St. Joe he picked up three fouls in two minutes and thirteen seconds.

Rod Sipe, the present "fifth" man, is doing an excellent job with his floor game but lacks the eight or nine points a game that the 'Cats need. Herman West's drop off in scoring has been an important factor in the recent Wildcat slump.

Cat capsules . . . The varsity basketball team was rated number 64 in the Indianapolis Times. Out of over 700 teams this seems like a good place for our improving cagers . . . Attention Riley boosters: While the Junior High, Freshmen, and B team all have fine records, one of the feeder schools, James Monroe, has the best record of all. Monroe has won 8 and lost 0. They have a "giant" playing center. He is 5-9.

Tankers fall to Bears, win only four events; City meet is tomorrow

by Bob Bernhardt

The varsity swimming team absorbed their third loss of the season last Monday as they bowed to Central's undefeated Bears. The score was 57-38. Ten wins and three losses is the tankers present record.

The swimmers won only four events, but lost the meet in the freestyle category where they scored only seven points as compared to Central' thirty-six points in the same four events.

Results Listed

The Riley winners were John Buchanan in the Butterfly, Gary Kins in the Breaststroke, Dave Buchanan in the Individual Medley, and the Medley Relay team of Dave Hail, Kins, Tom Lytle, and Tom Carmichael.

City Meet Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening at the Natatorium the city swim meet will be held. The defending champ is Adams, but the Eagles don't rate much of a chance of repeating as they have lost to both Riley and Central this season. Although the tankers have won the state championship the past three years they won the city title only once during that time.
