

Senior Classes Present Combined Annual Prom

Senior eyes will be turned toward the direction of the Palais Royale ballroom tomorrow evening as they await the annual All-City high school Senior Prom. Senior class members of the four city high schools and their guests and alumni of the host schools will attend the mid-year prom. No guest may be below a 10B classification.

Grand March Highlights Dance

Dancing will be furnished by the music of Mickey Isley and his orchestra from 9:00 to 12:00 P. M. Highlighting the evening will be the Grand March at 10:30 P. M.

Following a yearly custom, the girls will not wear corsages.

Ticket Sales End Today

No tickets can be purchased after 4:00 P. M. today. The tickets are $2.00 per couple.

Riley seniors may purchase their ducats from Danny Horvath or Jenny Morgan in room 204, Mary Ann Moorman 205, Barbara Spalding 220, Patt Jaworski 222, Shirley Wagner 307, Phyllis Abbott 315, and Marilyn Kling 317. Class officers Donn Whitmer, Dean Davis, Katie Hausmann, Jackie Oler, and Jack Brown are also selling tickets.

Students Plan Arrangements

Riley senior class social chairman, Jackie Oler, is the ticket chairman for the prom. Invitations were issued by Adams senior Joan Shotola and Barbara Byron headed the publicity committee. Florence Kurpiewski of Washington High school is the general arrangements chairman of the dance.

Basketball Queen To Reign At Adams Tilt

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors nominated twenty-three girls for queen of the Riley-Adams basketball game early this week. Final votes were collected today and the tabulations are now under way. The festivities will highlight the Thursday night game.

A senior girl will reign as queen and the two girls who won the second and third highest number of votes will serve on the court. One junior and one sophomore girl will also be court members.

The queen will be crowned at half-time ceremonies by Bill Troyer, Riley Student Council secretary. Riley Council president, Eleanor Nemeth, will act as master of ceremonies. Riley Hi-Y club members will escort the queen and her court. Adams Council president, Tom Addison, will crown the Adams queen. The two schools last observed royalty honors in 1949.

Reminder To Each Hi-Times Subscriber

Attention subscribers!

The Hi-Times staff wishes to emphasize the point that Hi-Times collections need not be completed by the end of the present semester.

Since our price is $1.25 and covers the entire school year, we do urge subscribers to have at least one-half of this amount paid to their respective home-room captain.

One-half of each subscription which is paid will enable the Hi-Times to carry expenses.

Get In The Swim!

"Tankers" Absorb Facts And Set Swim Strokes

Were you ever baffled by the fundamentals of swimming . . . perhaps you didn't understand the "lingo" of a meet . . . or maybe you wondered about the sense of timing required of all swimmers.

For the first time in school history Riley will send swimmers to compete in a meet against Gary Lew Wallace Monday.

Pointers Explain Terms

The following pointers are basic facts to clarify the meaning of swimming meets for the spectators.

Swimming meet events include the 40 yard free style, 100 yard free style, 200 yard free style, 100 yard breast stroke, 100 yard back stroke, individual medley, diving, medley relay and free style relay.

Free style means that any stroke can be used, but since the Crawl is the fastest stroke, the Crawl is used.

Medley Features Team

Medley means three different strokes in one race . . . back stroke, breast stroke, and crawl. In the individual medley each swimmer swims 40 yards back stroke, 40 yards breast stroke, and 40 yards crawl without stopping.

The medley relay has three swimmers on a team . . . one boy swims 60 yards breast stroke, another boy swims a 60-yard crawl. Each boy on the four member free style relay team swims 40 yards.

As yet, Riley's starting lineup has not been announced. The boys with the lowest times will be the ones entered by Coach Richard Feters.

Cheerleaders Spark Riley Booster Group

"We got the steam!

We got the might!

And we're gonna win this game tonight!

So fight, team, fight! Hallelujah!

So fight, team, fight! Hallelujah!

So fight, team, fight! Hallelujah!

So, fight team, fight!"

Heartily yelled to encourage the Riley hardwood five, the above cheer is one of several new yells which were introduced to Riley fans this year.

Credit is due to five peppy lasses who teach new yells to the student body and help build the team boosting enthusiasm. The Riley varsity cheerleaders, Mary Ann Moorman, Denny Horvath, Patt Jaworski, Jeannie Olmstead and Shirley Wagner, hold practice sessions of their own weekly to "polish" the cheers.

I Know My Grades Will Be Bad But--

I couldn't study too much. I have too many activities.

I studied my other subjects so hard that I didn't have time for that one.

I take my book home every night but I just can't seem to learn it.

My eyes aren't too good. I can't see the board.

Do You Follow Too Much?

Many of us here at Riley are guilty of playing "follow the leader" too much. In our admiration for our friends, knowing or unknowingly we make ourselves carbon copies. They're more popular you say, so why shouldn't we?

Wouldn't this be a dull place if all of us were alike? If we talked alike, dressed alike, and walked alike? Sure it would. Remember that originality in a friend is valuable too and try to be yourselves. You may be just as nice.

Nicknames In The News

Nicknames! Embarrassing, enlightening, and symbolic; but fun. Especially those which label a few Rileyites.

For instance, there's Emil Toth who's nickname is Rudolph and Joyce Lukovich who blushes at "Juicy."

Frances Valenti acquired the name "Shorty" for obvious reasons. Then there's Tom Schnabel, known as "Rose Bud," Tom O'Brien as "Hero," and Carolyn Wuthrich as "Peanuts."

Anyone who yells "Red" is liable to get a chorus of "what's" from Lucian Lambert, Donna Fulps, and many others.

Say "OB" and it's Buddy Overholser who pops up, but a call for "Wino" would bring Dick Weinburg. There's also Danny Moose otherwise known as "Fa Fa," Doyle Weaver now answers to "Coyote" and Joe Van Goey who doesn't give out much information about his name tag "As Ta Kay No."

There you have them, a few of the more unusual nicknames of a few of our Rileyites.

Council Notes

By Alice Turfler

More of the committees the Student Council members are working on are: The Lunch Hour committee which consists of Jack Barrow, chairman and Kay Anderson, secretary, Max Bauman, Dick King, Kenny McClure, and Mike Hoffman.

Joanne Moore is chairman of the Assembly and School Spirit committee, which attracted Julie Frankenstein, Eddie Riffel, David Fritz, Margaret Sult, Harry Smith, and Roger Manges.

Chairman Caryl Collins, Secretary Billie Himes and Carole Schwartz make up the Health committee.

The Student Activities committee seemed to attract quite a few of the Student Council members. Carol Mitchell and Carol Kalle serve as chairman and secretary. Also on the committee are Martha Hart, Joyce Lukavich, Lura Pavey, Bill Pollock, Kay Mittler, Loretta Stanti, Sharon Arney, Caryl Steffe, Frank Yanez, Chuck Kroft, Sherry Dale, Anna Kelly, Mary O'Meara, Kent Richards, Eunice Moore, Alice Turfler, Pat Driffs, Steve Barany, Margaret Sult, and Beverly Betz.

Eyes On The-

A-rgyles are being worn by the girls too—Marty Boggs, Barbara Spalding are two of the proud possessors. They look especially nice with the—

S—harp white bucks introduced to the gals by Joyce Root, Caryl Steffe, Carol Fowler and Virginia Place.

H—ide when you see them coming! Those yellow cord jackets really knock your eyes out. Bill Cole, Bill Denny, and Bob Cira are three of those fashion conscious lads.

Q—so pretty. That's for the gorgeous coats seen around this year. Susie Henninghauser's long beige one, Pat Davis' rust colored tweed, Marlene Suran's deep purple pyramid coat and Betty Brewer's bright red fleece coat are only a few.

N—eckerchiefs that are tied in the back. The idea seems to have originated with Katie Hausman, Goldie Damos, Marty Hart and their friends.

S—carves are long too. Bright plaid wools with fringed ends to throw over your shoulders or long plain dark colors. Esi Gendal, Beverly Labis and Janet Rose are only a few of the gals who wear them.

We Do Hereby Resolve-

By Lura Pavey

By now you have probably decided just how sweet and reformed you will try to be in the coming year. Let's take a glance at some of Riley's firmly resolved spokesmen of today and see how they intend to improve this year.

First of all, Marilyn Fall, who is never going to fight with Wayne Huston. Martha Steele promises to get a big truck and take back all of the things she borrowed and Jackie Riddle said she would try to skip her naps in Study Hall and let all those intelligent people who study alone.

Judy Tate will make a desperate attempt to dodge all Hi-Times reporters and Laurie Crofoot will make no more resolutions. Pat Perkins said she would endeavor to study her shorthand real hard so she will have enough time to sit on her future boss's lap. Byron Andrews resolves to quit arguing in English Class. (Miss Moss, did you hear that?)

Jo Wagner hereby resolves never to make a certain fellow late for class in the coming year, and Judy Wheeler solemnly resolves to get all of her "MALE" in the next twelve months. Denny Wayne will remember to leave car doors closed when traveling 45 miles an hour, and Pete Samuels resolves to get along with Mr. Edison in math class from now on . . . and last but by no means least, Ronnie Reiner has decided not to study more than three hours a day. (What do you think of that, teach?)

Now that you have heard from them, how about making the New Year a pleasant one for everybody by doing your share of "being your old self." How about it?

Juniors Interviewed . . . List Spaghetti and Hot Dogs As Likes

By Joyce Snyder

Dick, who may be found drinking favorite cokes or eating hot dogs will probably be in the company of Larry Smith. His favorite song is "Blue Indigo" and he likes listening to Ralph Thompson's orchestra.

Her favorite pastime is reading while her most embarrassing moment was one snowy November night when her Dad found her standing idly by looking at his new car which she had gracefully wrapped around a tree trunk. Better luck next time, Donna!

Her pet peeve now is trying to talk her Dad into letting her use the car. Hot dogs and apples rate highest when it comes to food, while Frankie Lane is tops on her vocal list.

MARY ANN SNYDER . . . a brown haired, brown eyed junior B adds lots of pep to her home room 309 every morning. This girl, answering only to the name of Mary Ann, can be seen with "Dee" Leatherman.

Her favorite color is blue, while in the line of food she likes spaghetti. She would think dancing all night wonderful fun, especially while listening to the Mills Brothers.

Her pet peeve is waiting on show people and her main interest now is in the air-force! Her most embarrassing moment was the time she fell up the stairs in church on her sister's wedding day. She plans to work after graduation.

By Tex Galloway

Well kiddies, now that we're back from our vacation it seems that spring has sprung, fall has fell, winter's here and it's much colder than last winter.

While peeking in on Washington High School, it seems that three Riley lettermen find the Tuesday night dances very interesting. Wonder why, boys?

Now we turn our eyes towards Central where we find a Rileyite, Jerome Gladwin Grabill, has his eye on a certain Connie Prather. Shirley Wagner also likes Central, but in the form of Dick Schutt.

While we're at it, we might as well finish making the rounds. Seems that Joyce Root and Mary Lou Graham have interests at Washington-Clay. The guys are Joe Katona and Jim Wiggins.

Zorka Voynovich's phone has been busy lately and it could be either Adams or Central calling.

Now to Notre Dame where we find more Riley interests. Wilma Potter keeps a close watch on one Bob Martin.

Marilyn Polay and Loris Slutsky recently returned from Bloomington where they attended the pledge formal of the Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. They were the guests of Warren Blumfield, East Chicago, and Paul Hansman, Central alumnus.

Now back to the halls of R. H. S. where we find a few people who don't have much regard for Spring. On the steady list are Judy Tate and Don Dodson, Caryl Hilderbrant and Dick Dennison (Mish.), Bob Winterstein and Nancy Carpenter, Nick Medich and Sandy Williams. Seen together lately include Doyle Weaver and Marlene Slodvotski.

More steadies are Earl Simmonds and Alice Nerenburg, Lois Burch and Charlie Nelson, and Nancy Neland and Joe Rouskowski. Sounds fishy but 'tis said that Sam Kovacevich and Elizabeth Taylor (Hollywood) have an active correspondence. I wonder.

Over the holidays, while "Moe" Morrison was visiting Greg Parker, one of Parker's little girls came in the house crying because nobody would play Cowboy and Indian with her. When "Moe" offered to be a cowboy, she only cried harder and in between sobs explained that he wouldn't do. He was already scalped!

Back to our dating, we also find Lori Bradfute and Maurie Stuart, Judy Fultz and Bill Hendrickson, Mary Carol and Sam Munger, Sally Gerber and Tom Slater.

Overheard — "If my name isn't in the Hi-Times at least two times this week I'll never speak to the staff members again." I'm not a staff member but I wouldn't want that to happen, so here goes — Irene O'Meara . . . Irene O'Meara.

That's all for me. I'm happy to turn the column back to Aunt Aggie next time.

Ask Us . . .

By Lulu Slutsky and Phoebe MacCullum

Since all Christmas gift wrappings have been ripped off and there is no longer any mystery about whether you got what you wanted, we thought it might be interesting to find out just what some of the kids wanted but didn't get. First of all, Bob Hawley complains that he received no present from his boss at work. (I wonder what he could want?)

A portable radio and a typewriter were missing from Yvonne Barr's Christmas stocking. Sherman Greider was sort of looking for a new watch, while Hal Weiss was wishfully hoping for a Cadillac and a good lookin' doll. Now what would he do with a doll? Ronnie Bella wanted a triple duty toothbrush? Oh well, everyone to his own taste.

Bob Jackson hunted all around the tree but couldn't find any new car, while Dick Mastain was more specific and explained that his wish was for a red '47 Chevie convertible with spotlights, battery, 5 tires and radio. Jack Harris's babe about 19 years old was among the missing. Tried the Missing Person's Bureau yet Jack? Sally Wiebusch had quite an original missing Christmas gift, she hoped for a baby brother.

Donn Whitmer was hoping for a set of left handed tools and Tommy Smith would have liked to receive a wood burning set from someone. Bob Huffman was in hopes of finding a job but this dream was also shattered. John Hans adds a cheery note by exclaiming that he got everything he wanted. Ronald Botos agreed with John about getting everything but he did add that he would like something about 5'2" with eyes of blue. Last but not least, Larry Gast wanted a chemistry set.

Officials Speak To Patrons At P.T.A. Meeting

"Juvenile Problems of the County" was the subject for discussion by Chief Probation Officer Gordon E. Weist and Judge John S. Gonas of South Bend at the first Riley P. T. A. meeting of the year. The meeting was held in the school library Tuesday afternoon.

Music was directed by Miss Laura Mae Briggs and Mrs. Joseph Van Mele was the social hour chairman.

The Old . . . And New

By Shirley Dillon

While looking around to see what the New Year brought in we find some of last year's left overs. Among the steadies we find: Joyce Snider and Dick Lund, Judy Rounds and Bob Daniels, Carol Fowler and Don Root (Wash.-Clay), and Bev Mann and Chuck Hatfield.

Some of the "just daters" of last year are still "just dating," Judy Jerald and Walt Shillinger (Central), Pat Davis and Ed Baer, Sally Rosenheimer and Jack Brown, Caryle Steffe and Jay Guy (Wash.-Clay), and Jack Hanna and Marcia Fee.

Jack: "Who me? I thought that you were driving."

Stenographer: "Your little girl wants to kiss you over the phone."

Busy Manager: "Take the message, I'll get it from you later."

A doctor said to a woman patient, "How old did you say you were?"

"I never mention my age," she said, "but as a matter of fact, I've just reached 21."

"Indeed," said the doctor, "what detained you?"

Well, it's time to be leaving but before I go there are a few more couples who want their names on the steady list: Judy Wheeler and Dennis Woodka, Suzie Stover and Bob Vincek, Phyllis Abbot and Dean Davis, Bob Jordon and Joyce Cutner, and Joyce Gearhart and Roger Moore (Central).

Oh, and another thing, IRENE O'MEARA, IRENE O'MEARA— just to save some hard feelings, and to be sure someone didn't slip up.

Never before has the NIHSAA seen so many good basketball teams. Fort Wayne, Elkhart, Adams, and Central all are top rate teams, with Riley, Washington, and Mishawaka not too far behind . . . Any of the first four teams could cop the title, with any of the latter three being able to upset the top raters . . . There is great speculation as to whether Adams' defeat of Central will result in a letdown for the Eagles, enabling other conference teams to slip past them. The Eagles have been able to surprise a lot of teams, but now everyone will be ready for them . . . I look for the conference title to be decided when the Elkhart Blue Blazers meet the Fort Wayne North Side Redskins. However, Central still has an outside chance, and they have proven that when they're on, they can beat any team in the state.

S. S.

Since Central beat Crispus Attucks by three points, and lost to Adams by two, and since Adams lost to Washington by one point and Riley beat the Panthers by one, our own Riley Wildcats should be rated seven points better than Crispus Attucks, the team most sports-writers think will win the state tournament.

S. S.

Short Sports Slants: It certainly has been rough on the sluggers in the past months, especially Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, and Joe Louis. The loss of these men leave their respective sports without their greatest crowd pleasers . . . It seems funny to hear the names of so many former Indiana High School players playing big time basketball in the midwest. Such names as Stackhouse, Server, Blind, Schlundt, Shine, and many others should bring back memories of many former state tourneys.

"Son of the Black Stallion" by Walter Farley. This week, we are presenting to you two wonderful horse stories. The first one is the "Son of the Black Stallion."

Arbar Sheikh, Alue Ja Kub bea Ishak of Arabia promised Alie Ramsey, his first colt. From across the vast white sands of the sea came his horse. This is the story of a boy's deep love for his horse, and belief that the horse could be freed of his savage instinct to kill.

"The Black Bay Colt" is by Walter Farley also. Tom wanted to win the colt's confidence.

He was asked to take care of the colt during his summer vacation. He loved every minute of it. This story tells of the finest harness racing in America. Much depends upon Tom and his ability for caring and training the colts. If he made a mistake, then the hope for the prize racer might be ruined.

Ke Fauver Commission Casts Watchful Eye On Hi-Y Recruiting Charge

By Anonymous

The Riley High School Athletic Department has announced their participation in the annual Hi-Y-Faculty basketball game which is scheduled for the front gym immediately following school today. A donation will admit you to see this "Game of the Century."

Due to the fact that the reputation of the game of basketball will be at stake the Rules Committee has made a few new rules. The Rules Committee states it has notified Referees Joe Lee and Bud Overholser of the changes. A few of the rule changes which the referees think will have a definite effect on the game are: A foul will be called on anyone carrying concealed weapons with a penalty of one free shot being inflicted, a penalty of two free shots against anyone caught tripping, biting, gouging, etc. Anyone convicted of involuntary manslaughter will be ejected from the game. With these new rules you should see an interesting contest.

Bribe Attempt Uncovered

Hi-Y President Roland Swanson and Sponsor Wilber Campbell have already noticed some foul play. Mr. Campbell has already notified Senator Kefauver of a bribe attempt by the faculty. Mr. Campbell says that Hi-Y boys are noted for their Christian character and it was foolish for the faculty to think they could bribe them. The Hi-Y also charged Athletic Director Paul Kelly with recruiting star players Charlie Stewart, Lennie Rzeszewski and Donald Barnbrook for the sole purpose of beating the Hi-Y. The Hi-Y charges that Mr. Kelly gave them jobs as basketball coaches as a front so they will be able to participate in the game.

"Stew" and "Splinters"

In amidst of all the scandal, Hi-Y coaches Jim "Stew" Snyder and Ron "Splinters" Bella, say they don't expect too much trouble from All American Lennie "Bubba Bean" Rzeszewski. Snyder was overheard saying that "Lennie" might get a few points. Meanwhile Bella states that all members of the Hi-Y Hot Shots have perfected a hook shot that makes Adams' Dick Shennenberger's jump shot look like a free throw.

Faculty Fizzers

The faculty expects to field a starting five resembling "Fearless Fosdick" Stewart, Lennie "Bubba Bean" Rzeszewski, "Hot Lips" Fought, "Tarzan" Wakefield, and John Cooper, the Ball State flash.

Other performers include "Hairless Joe" Morrison, "Moose" Barnbrook, "Charles Atlas" Osborn, "Simon LeGree" Smith, A. B. (Atom Bum) Meyer, "Kerry Drake" Edison, and Bert "Pop" Anson.

Hi-Y Hot Shots

The Hi-Y meanwhile has declined to release their starting five for publication. However, I hear they have two teams that will divide the playing time in half. One team will consist of guards Jim "Cat" Huber and "Lover Boy" Bockover, at forwards will be Larry "Stainless Steel" Smith and "Roundy" Lakatos, the center will be "Tilton Pluff" Whitfield. The other team will consist of "Cowboy Bill" Troyer and Alan "Red" Wallstead at the guards, Dan "Goose" Smith will be at center, and the forwards will be Rol "Parson" Swanson and Wayne "Humphrey" Glassford.

Cat Frogmen Initiate New Era In Riley Annals

By Ron Bella

Swimming, coached by Dick Fetzers, Riley's newest in the sports program, will make its debut on Monday when the Fetzermen will travel to Gary to compete against a tough Lew Wallace crew. The meet will mark the first in the history of the school and the results will prove interesting to the swimming fans in this area. Following up the Lew Wallace go a week later the finmen will travel again to Gary to face Gary Froebel's swimmers, then meet with Central's "B" squad and John Adams.

As yet, the candidates are still jockeying for starting berths but at this time the best performance turned in by the tankers are Tom Swem and Don Coar in the free style, with James Million and Don Rogers, topping the clock in the breast stroke and leading in the back stroke are Dan Post and Dick Peters with the best times thus far.

Riley Kittens Look Good In Plymouth Win

By Jim Ainsworth

The B-Cats started the New Year right on January 1 by beating the boys from Plymouth 45-34. The Kittens looked good moving that ball around and slipping past the pressure defense set up by Plymouth. Riley held a 29-14 half-time lead.

Heading the Cats' attack was Jack Kudlaty with 20 points; Jim Lee, Charles McGeath and John Abell took second place in the scoring parade with 7, 6, and 4 points, respectively. Larry McMichael follows with 3, and Conrad Strykyl and Roman Lavisa with 2, while Eddie Nellans had 1.

Coopermen Drop Third Loop Tilt

By Ray Webster

John Cooper's C-team lost their third conference and their fifth game of the season to the Jefferson Bulldogs in an overtime, 32-28 tilt. They played on their home floor.

It was a see-saw battle all the way until overtime. Louie Anderson's free throw knotted the count 26 all, with 32 seconds left.

Getting the points as usual was Ralph Jordan with 8, Louie Anderson and Jim Ulbricht with 5, Gale Acton and Jack White with 4, and to round out the scoring, Corky Grossnickle with his lone fielder.

CAT...TALES

By Bill Troyer

An attempt on the part of Moe Morrison, alias "Hairless Joe," to recruit his Booster Club as a cheering section for the faculty in their annual game with the Hi-Y failed as the students voted to attend as rooters for the Hot Shots. One of the top stars of the Faculty Fizz Kids, Barney "Moose" Barnbrook, was reported by reliable sources as being in a serious nervous state . . . reason being that his wife presented him with a bouncing baby boy. Future basketball star? ? ? ? ?

C-T

The officiating of the recent Riley-LaPorte tilt left something to be desired. Officials Eaton and McNaught tooted their whistles a total of 58 times. This was not their chief fault as we saw it though. They thoughtfully let the members of the respective teams (especially LaPorte) talk over the foul. This is not in the best interests of good officiating as they tend to lose control over the players and crowds.

C-T

Schedule Dept.: The postponed Brazil tilt will be played February 19th. Spike Kelly announces that he has arranged a home and home series beginning November 13, 1953, with the Mooseheart team of Mooseheart, Ill. Mooseheart is a national boys home sponsored by the Benevolent Order of Moose, on the order of Boys Town. The Moose annually have one of the better teams of the country. In 1949 and 1950 they were undefeated. On October 16, 1954, the Cats will travel to Mooseheart for an afternoon tilt.

Want Ad Section: Track Coach Bob Smith wants all able-bodied men from the ninth to twelfth grades interested in track to report for a preliminary meeting Monday, at 3:30, in room 305. He adds that only able-bodied men interested in track and willing to work need apply.

C-T

Apology: To Barney Barnbrook. After all the trouble we went to get your score book, guess what? I left it in my locker Monday night.

Culver To Provide Tough Road For Cats

By Nels Oman

Coach Charlie Stewart's Wildcat five who have been unsuccessful in their three attempts against conference foes Mishawaka, Ft. Wayne North, and LaPorte, again face a rugged contest. This time on a Saturday night down in Culver town. The title will climax a rugged weekend which starts with highly rated Central's Bears who have recently had some of the starch taken out of them by a fighting John Adams five. The Adams quint which just a few weeks ago had to fight down

First Title!

Stewartmen Grab Hammond Crown

In the first Hammond Noll Invitational holiday basketball tournament held last December 29, Coach Charlie Stewart's Wildcats squeezed past Lebanon 51 to 50 in the afternoon game, and then came back strong in the evening to beat Hammond Noll 44 to 37, coming home with the tourney's top honors.

Nearly Blow Lead

Against Lebanon, the Cats led almost all the way, but with just two minutes remaining in the game, a field goal by Lebanon knotted the score at 48 all. Bill Cole hit a free throw, but Sonny Walker, Lebanon's top scorer, put his team ahead, 50 to 49. Then, with only thirty seconds remaining, Jim Snyder tossed in the winning field goal, to give the Cats their third one point victory in five games. High man for Riley was Joe Lee, with fifteen points. He was closely followed by Buddy Overholser, who hit fourteen.

Cats Make Rally

In the final game, the Cats trailed at the end of the first period, but they caught Noll in the second quarter, and surged to a 25 to 16 lead at half-time. They were never headed after that, although their nine point half-time lead was cut slightly. The Cats' well-balanced attack was the main factor in this game, with nine players breaking into the scoring column. Buddy Overholser was high man with nine points. Following him were Bill Cole with eight and Jim Snyder and Bill Denney with six points apiece.

Noll got into the finals by beating Crawfordsville, 60 to 48, while in the consolation game, Crawfordsville beat Lebanon, 68 to 55.

to the wire to overcome this same Culver bunch the Cats meet tomorrow night.

The Wildcats' five will attempt to break up the vaunted platoon system which has proved so effective in previous encounters. The tilt will be a breather from the last three rugged conference battles in which the Stewartmen have been engaged.

Next Friday night features one of the most looked forward to games of the year as Riley meets her old traditional rival, the high flying Adams Eagles who thus far have enjoyed a most successful season under their second year coach, Warren Seaborg. The men from over on the east side have come along in grand style, winning all three of their conference encounters to find themselves in a first place tie with Elkhart's Blue Blazers with the same record.

The starting five, in all probability, will consist of the same boys used by Stewart in his recent one point thrillers so aptly played up by the South Bend Tribune.

They are: Lee and Overholser at forwards, Snyder center, and Rhodes and Ulbricht at the guard spots.
