

Honor Roll Additions

Homeroom 202 — Mrs. Ballard — George Gerencser 13 pts., Janice Black 12 pts.; Homeroom 200 — Mrs. Bohan — Becky Uhrig 16 points.

The Debate Team

coached by Mr. Goodman, will travel to Purdue today for the extemporaneous speaking contests and debates. Eleven of the fifteen members are going.

"Fashions Foretold", a style show presented by the Riley modeling class will be held in Robertson's Tea Room next Saturday, at 3:30 p.m. Tickets are now on sale and can be obtained from any girl in the class or from chairman Phyllis Mikel.

Extenco,

a Junior Achievement company, are makers of extension cords and trouble lights. Riley representative is Keith Farnsworth. The company is sponsored by Standard Oil.

Christmas Seals

will go on sale the next week and conducted through homeroom period each day. It is hoped that each classroom will purchase a $5.00 bond to keep up the fight against Tuberculosis.

Another six-page

Hi-Times will appear two weeks from today as the Christmas issue. Included will be two extra pages with a number of Christmas features, the December issue of the Scholastic Roto, a large Christmas card picture of the staff, and as usual — more ads — all for the regular price of ten cents.

The Hi-Times was very pleased with the reception students gave the first six-page issue this year. About 1120 copies were sold, setting a record for this year and approaching the record number last year — 1150 — which was the greatest number of papers sold in one week in recent years.

After the next six-page paper, the Hi-Times plans at least two more six-page papers this year.

Hi-Times broadcasts over School City FM station every week

The Hi-Times had its first broadcast carried over the new School City FM station yesterday to students and community residents.

The newspapers of all the South Bend high schools have each been given a weekly fifteen minute radio news program. The Hi-Times show, "Talk of the Times", will appear every Thursday from 8:30 to 8:45.

Any public high school can pick up the program, as can any resident with a FM receiver. Whether Riley students are able to hear the broadcast depends on the schedule of passing to classes for the program usually runs into first hour.

The show is directed by Mr. John Finster with Mr. Howard Uhrig as technical director. Bob Lerman, first page editor of the Hi-Times, and Neil Cossman, editor-in-chief, write the show and are broadcasters for the Hi-Times.

The general plan of the Hi-Times show, although other schools may follow different patterns, is news interpretation and sidelights on the news rather than a straight program of news broadcasting.

After some introductory comments, each show begins with a news round-up — two or three minutes of news headlines. Bob Lerman then gives the sports news.

Following sports is an interview with a person or persons who make or know the news. Randy Brooks and Tim Pickering, varsity members of the debate team, were on the show yesterday, discussing the current debate topic on educational systems.

Following the interview is a feature of some kind. An editorial was featured yesterday, dealing with Dick Clark's American Bandstand and a variation of it.

Each show ends with prognostications of the scores of the coming week's sports events, by Honest Bob Lerman. Letters will also be encouraged as the show is planned to be provocative and informative within reasonable limits.

Sophs to hold 'Fascinating Rhythm' tonite

Discovering an error on the posters advertising tonight's sophomore dance are class officers Dee Goldberg, president; Judy Lemke, treasurer; Gerry Reinke, secretary; and Kent Wilcox, vice-president. Although there is an "o" left out of "sophomore", other items on the poster are correct — namely, 7:30 to 10:30, grades 9-12, price 50c, and music by the Intrigues.

Junior High to present musical comedy, "Kittiwake Island", next week; plot outlined Kittiwake Island, a charming musical comedy, will be presented December 12 and 13 by the Riley Junior High. The music was written by Alec Wilder, an American, in 1955 and the play is being directed by James Lewis Casaday with the music directed by Miss Ruby L. Williams.

Kittiwake Island is the story of Dr. Orlando Puffin who is looking for a smew (a bird) which is thought to be extinct. He believes that the smew is on Kittiwake Island, so he goes there to look for it.

Kittiwake is in the Atlantic ocean and if one were to get on a raft, the Gulf stream would carry him there, as some of the characters in Kittiwake find out. Dr. Puffin is from the state university and he is on the island for not very long when, much to his surprise, a group of college girls who had come to study Shakespeare jump out at him.

Homeroom 310 earns Honor Society plaque for 47% on honor roll Homeroom 319, a 12B room sponsored by Mr. Shubert, received the National Honor Society Plaque for having the highest percent of its students on the honor roll.

Constructed by last year's graduating class for the NHS, the plaque is being used for the first time this year.

The plaque is given to the senior high homeroom with the highest percent of its students on the honor roll. It will remain in homeroom 310 until the end of the semester. Homeroom 310 may keep the plaque as long as it maintains the highest percent of its students on the honor roll at the end of each grading period.

Honor Society President, Graydon Reinoehl, presented the plaque to Homeroom 310 President, Wayne Wenzel, in a ceremony over the P.A., November 25.

Recognition was given to Miss McMillan's 8B homeroom, 217, with 69.1 per cent of its students on the honor roll. The junior high is not considered for presentation of the plaque.

By a majority vote of the NHS, homeroom 104 was not considered for the plaque as it is a special room with only three students and 100 per cent on the honor roll.

According to the rules of presentation, Miss McAlpine's 12B homeroom, 314, with 45 per cent, was next in line after homeroom 310 with 47.37 per cent.

Sophomores to crown titled pair at dance; final vote yesterday

Sophomore class officers and social chairmen are making last minute preparations for tonight's Class of '61 dance, "Fascinating Rhythm", to be held in the gym from 7:30 to 10:30.

Students of grades nine through twelve are invited at 50 cents per person. The Intrigues will play. Only 350 tickets can be sold and will be available today.

Shades of lavender, silver, and gold were decided upon by the decorations committee. Posters, fliers, and the HI-TIMES have all been used in publicizing the dance. Invitations have been issued to the parents of the social chairmen, and class officers.

Highspot of the evening will be the naming and crowning of Miss Fascination and Mr. Rhythm, who were selected by their classmates in a vote during homeroom period yesterday.

Each of the eleven sophomore homerooms nominated two boys and two girls for the titles, three weeks ago. These were voted upon two weeks ago. Each student voted for two boys and two girls and the top six for each title were made members of the court. The final vote was cast yesterday.

The entertainment committee has made crowns for the court and more impressive ones for the titled pair.

Awards dinner honors football team; twenty boys receive awards

The members of the 1958 football team were honored at a banquet, November 25.

Johnny Jordan, head basketball coach at Notre Dame, was the guest speaker. Joe Wojtys, Riley head line coach, also spoke.

These boys were presented their monogram sweaters or chevrons: Gene Davis, Alton Sanders, Bob Foor, Bob Lemay, Jim Cook, Tom Mannen, Dave Gleason, Dale Dabrowiak, Terry Munger, Fred Hensel, Dennis Graeber, Rodney Sipe, Louis Swedarsky, Richard Nykios, John Barth, Art Stump, Bruce Sullivan, Bill Swem, Wayne Wenzel, Ed Parker, Bill Sigler, Dave Hendrix, and Larry Hostetler.

Awards were also given for outstanding performance or achievement in special areas. Dave Gleason was voted Most Valuable Back, Dale Dabrowiak, Most Improved Player, Bruce Sullivan, Most Valuable Lineman. Bruce also received the Booster Club Award.

Student Council begins fund raising drive; MAD characters collect $100 in assemblies

"Change is all we are asking — Change for Exchange" says the Student Council in this year's fund-raising campaign to bring a foreign student to Riley.

Although the drive will end as soon as the $750 goal is reached, it may run for two more weeks until the goal is reached. The total sum has been broken down into individual homeroom goals. Two students from each homeroom will be collecting every morning. Each day, the homeroom will be announced which has collected the most money toward its goal.

In charge of receiving all money collected in H.R.'s are Barbara Much, Diane Bender, and Kay Kruggel. The committee that will tabulate the figures, count the money, and be in charge of announcing the highest home room is Kay Kruggel, Susan Clark, and Dave Simmons.

Three assemblies, held during the past week, kicked off the campaign with the slogan, "Go Mad — Give Money." Smiling benevolently upon the assembly groups was Alfred E. Newman, a character in MAD magazine and hero of many teenagers.

Featured in the assembly programs were: Randy Brooks, M.C., JoAnn Postle, Riley exchange student to Norway, and Anita Stenberg, exchange student from Sweden. A mob of 28 MADly dressed characters collected nearly $100 in assembly groups II and III to kick off the campaign.

Publicity and Poster Committee: Sarah Yoder, chairman; Lou Ann Wieand, Kay Kruggel, Donna Jean Mast, Anita Stenberg, Jo Ann Postle, Beverly Whiting.

Dime or dollar, give something

The growth of the American Field Service exchange program is one indication of their success. With the launching of a week long campaign for funds at assemblies this week, the Student Council asked students to aid in one of these programs.

This is the foreign student program, whereby foreign students are brought to America to spend a year in our schools. This is probably the most important AFS program, although all nations need to understand each other more.

Many of the foreign students who visit the United States will in ten or fifteen years be leaders in their countries. They will do more than anyone else to create impressions of America for they have been here and lived with U. S. families.

To bring a foreign student to Riley will cost $650. The Student Council is aiming for $750 and will use the surplus to aid the Riley student who will spend a summer in Europe under the AFS Summer Program. Forty cents from every student would meet the goal. Donations from clubs and organizations are also encouraged. Whether it's a dime or a dollar, give something.

The Students Speak...

by Georgia Polovina and Pat Miller
Of great interest to most teen-agers is the much debated topic, going steady. Our question this week is: "What is your opinion on going steady?"

Candy Clifford — (Freshman) — If a girl and boy find that they like each other so well that neither of them wants to date anyone else, then I believe it is okay to 'go steady.' However, both of them might have more fun if they went out with someone else once in a while.

Cathy Holdren — (Freshman) — I think going steady is O.K. The one thing I don't like about it is breaking up.

Tom Gleason — (Freshman) — 'Going steady' is O.K., if your parents approve.

David Kottowski — (8B) — 'Going steady' is all right, but not for young people in the age group of 12 to 15. At this age, the problems of 'going steady' are many. At the age of about 17 and up, however, 'going steady' is all right.

Carol Witner — (8B) — It's okay to a certain extent. The reason parents don't want us to go steady is that they think it's like being engaged, but 'going steady' is really when you go with a boy or girl which you like, and go to parties and dances together. I think it is all right to go steady.

Woody Talcott — (Sophomore A) — I like to go steady as it gives me a feeling of security, but I think it is bad for my grades.

Vicky Haenes — (Sophomore) — I think going steady is a good idea if you are really serious and don't want to date anyone else, but if you are not serious and are just going steady so you can say you're going with someone, I don't think it's fair to you or your steady.

Dave Fleming — (Junior) — Going steady is fine for people that like each other to the extent they don't want to go out with anybody else.

Connie Denney — (Junior) — I thing going steady is GREAT.

Myrna Fisdale — (Junior) — I feel that going steady is O.K. if the couple really does like each other and feel that they have no desire to date others. However, I am against going steady if it is done for the convenience of a date every week end.

More views on the nation wide subject — "Going Steady" in next week's Students Speak.

PEOPLE OF THE TIMES

by Bonnie Bedwell
A musically inclined girl is Riley's prettiest blusher, Lou Ann Wieand. Lou Ann plays the flute, and the piano; she also took organ lessons. Lou Ann says, "I feel that music is such a part of me that I couldn't get along without it and so I practice and participate in all the music I can."

Among the things that Lou Ann will always remember are the band trips to Riverview and the state contest, the Latin Club Florialia and Matronalia and the formal All-City Orchestra concert last spring.

Lou Ann tries to pattern her life after the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

One of her most thrilling experiences at Riley was her induction into the "National Honor Society." This is what Lou Ann says about it: "It is hard to express my feelings at that time, but I know that I was surprised and tremendously thrilled."

Future plans include college (perhaps Manchester) training for either an elementary education major or a music major.

Lou Ann's activities while at Riley include Latin Club, J. A., Student Council, N. H. S., band and orchestra, and the cheer block, also her church choir and youth group.

Lou Ann ruminates: "I look back on my years at Riley with some nostalgic feelings. In some ways I would like to start all over again in my freshman year, but I know that the years ahead will be full of other wonderful experiences. I hope that members of our Senior Class will start now (if they haven't already) to make this the best year yet so that as we look back on our years in Riley after graduation, we will have all pleasant memories and everyone can say that this was truly one of the finest classes that ever graduated from Riley."

Hi Gang!

This is Bev and Bon coming to you once again from our corner in the staff room.

Did you know that 44% of the 12'As were on the Honor Roll? Maybe this means that the older you get the more the grades mean to you.

Observation — One very observing person asked me this past week if I had ever noticed that the girl wearing the chemistry apron in the "cut" on the top of second page looked as though she were wearing an evening gown? The next time I looked at a Hi-Times I saw that it was really true! No reflections cast upon Tom Butters, our Hi-Times artist, though.

Carolyn Howes and Nancy Rolff had to lead off a song in French class called, "Au Clair De La Lune." Since they were in the glee club, they were appointed to sing the song by themselves first and then the second time the class was to sing with them. It seems as though they both were very scared and they were blushing like Lou Ann Wieand always does!!

The Hi-Y helped to make Thanksgiving a happy one for two needy families. Non-perishable foods were collected in the home rooms last week and Wednesday morning the Hi-Y boys collected over $22.00 to buy meat and other things to provide Thanksgiving dinner for the two families. Tom Butters, Doris Gapsky, and Chuck Kieser were responsible for the success of this worthy project.

Bev Husvar and Bonnie Bedwell.

YOU'VE got troubles?

This is the story of an eventful evening with two Riley couples, Tom Butters, Sue Shaw, Dave Vollmer, and Jean Hopkins.

One fine eveing, four Rileyites were going to a basketball game in Gary, Indiana. Mr. Butters was the man behind the wheel. What they thought to be the Gary Civic Auditorium turned out to be the public library. Due to Sue's insistence, a wrong turn was made; in the process, Tom hit a car that was coming out of an alley. After Tom had given the driver of the car the necessary information, he returned to the car and said, "Geez, you run into the nicest people in Gary."

By the time they found the auditorium and paid a quarter to park and 75c apiece to get in to see the game, there was only 13 minutes of game time left.

After the short time spent at the game, Sue wanted to stop at her cousin's house, 40 blocks from the auditorium. She said that it was on the way back to the toll road. Was it though? NOoooo, they had to go 40 blocks back in the other direction.

No mishaps occurred on the return trip — perhaps because Dave drove home?

Tom retrived his driving seat after coming off the toll road. While crusing down Michigan street, Tom heard a police siren. He muttered to no one in particular, "Naw, he doesn't want me." You guessed it, Tom was going 50 miles an hour in a 30 mile speed zone. The 'cop' asked Tom if he could pay a $30 fine. Tom replied, "No Sir, I could not."

Later, recapturing the events of the evening, Tom discovered that the basketball game cost him about $4.00 a minute.

Thus ends the story of the unlucky quartet and the night Tom will never forget.

Shirley's main interest is people. She says, "I like to meet people. You can certainly learn a lot by talking to different types of people."

Being in the cheerblock last year was a lot of fun for her. It gave her 'a good feeling' to know that she was doing something constructive at the same time that she was enjoying herself.

Shirley's funniest experience happened while on a dance floor. She was dancing, when all of a sudden her petticoat was down around her ankles.

Miss Lenyo has this to say about Riley school spirit: "Our school spirit can be improved. Everyone should get together and attend all of our activities, social or sport events. Here is one thing to remember, 'We make our school spirit what it is.' Let's all get together and show everyone what we can do."

Future plans for Shirley is to be an airline stewardess. The first time she stepped on a plane, she knew that she wanted to be a stewardess. Traveling around the world, meeting people, and the excitement of it all sounds very attractive to Shirley.

Her advice to underclassmen is: "Study hard, have fun, and keep smiling."

To win, you must solve all four problems correctly.

1. A car is driven on a highway for a distance of 10 miles at an average rate of 20 miles per hour, and returns the same distance at an average rate of 30 miles per hour. What is the average rate for the whole trip?
2. A car is driven on a highway at an average rate of 20 miles per hour for the first hour and 30 miles per hour for the second hour. What is the average rate for the whole trip?
3. A car is driven on a highway at an average rate of 30 miles per hour for the first 10 miles. At what rate must he average the next 10 miles so that the average rate for the whole distance is 60 miles per hour?
4. A car is driven down a highway at an average rate of 30 miles per hour for the first hour. At what rate must he average the next hour so that the average rate for the whole distance is 60 miles per hour?

One paper for each set of four correct. Entries must be turned into the staff room by 4:00 today.

Answers to last week's problems:

1. The elevator was the self-operating type. The man was very short (or a midget) and could not reach the number 10 button, only as high as number 4. Unless someone was with him to press the 10 button, Mr. Smith was forced to get off at the fourth floor.
2. He dropped pebbles into the jar containing the medicine until the liquid level in each jar was the same. The amount poured was exactly one-half jar.

Winners last week were: Problem 1 — Tom Mittler, Rick Beringer, Chuck Stites, Mike Plant, David Vollmer, Judy Areen, Richard Townsend, Ron Kronewitter, and Tom Frank. Problem 2 — Judy Areen and Tom Frank.

Views and Reviews

January is almost here which means a new shakeup is in store for the TV screens. Already this year we have seen the demise of the quiz show, for a couple of seasons the mainstay of all evening and daytime television. The westerns are still going strong, although some of them will get the axe. Two new ones have recently hit the airwaves, though: "Man Without A Gun", with its hero Rex Reason can be seen over channel 9 from Chicago; ABC has the "Lawman"; and the Sheriff of Cochise (John Bromfield) has been promoted to "U. S. Marshall."

Music: The John Adams High School Glee Club opens the community Christmas season Sunday with their annual Christmas Vespers at 4 p.m. in the school auditorium... the South Bend Symphony with Eileen Farrell, Wagnerian soprano as soloist will present its second program Sunday in O'Laughlin auditorium... the Choir of the First Presbyterian Church will sing a portion of Bach's Christmas oratorio at 7:30 the same day in the sanctuary.

Movies: After the run of the Shrine Circus at the Palace, the film version of Edwin O'Connor's "The Last Hurrah", starring Spencer Tracy may be seen there... "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Inspector General" opened yesterday... Did you notice that last week, two Jules Verne stories were playing in movie versions at local theaters ("Around the World..." at the Palace and "From the Earth to the Moon" at the State)? The old boy has finally made it as a movie writer.

Usually we devote ourselves to abstract philosophy here. For a change we'll talk about something real — Dick Clark's American Bandstand.

From what I've seen and heard of the show, Mr. Clark has a pretty good thing going for him. By appealing to the emotions and approval of teenagers, although half of them are adults, he has amassed an audience of eight million. People write him to the tune of one letter being written every fifteen seconds of the day and night, or 45,000 letters a week, as New Yorker Magazine puts it, "who knows what about."

Here is how The New Yorker describes the show: "... young Mr. Clark presides over the revels of a roomful of teenagers, who rock 'n' roll to songs like 'Skinny Minnie' ('She ain't skinny, she's tall that's all'). The show has eight million look 'n' listners, half of them adults..."

Sooo... the point we're trying to make is "Does the show have any real value besides making money for enterprising Mr. Clark?" Actually, that's not a point, it's a question and one which deserves an answer. However, we're not so blind. We can see plainly that the purpose of the show is entertainment and it keeps the kids off the streets (in front of the television watching Mr. Clark) and everyone knows that...

On the subject of the AFS drive, JoAnn Postle told us a very illustrative story in the assemblies this week. The gist of it is that each time a student goes from a South Bend school to live for a while in a foreign country, a thread (imaginary) then joins the two locations. The same is true for the foreign student coming to an American school. With this being done in hundreds of spots around the nation and two or three dozen foreign countries, thousands of imaginary threads are being formed and they are making a strong fabric. From this fabric may one day be cut the pattern for world peace.

We thought it was a very meaningful story and wish to put in a plug for the campaign and ask you to help weave this cloth.

We like to pass on things from The American Treasury, edited by Clifton Fadiman. As far back as 1935 someone said the reason American cities are prosperous is that there is no place to sit down.

Dave Fleming leads Pinboys to loop lead; Swingers put Alleycats in second place

by Darrell Stroup

Did you know that Billy Graham (world known evangelist) was a baseball player? For a while his ambition was to make the major leagues. He also was a basketball player.

S. S.

Did you ever hear of anyone refusing contracts from 11 out of 12 National Football League teams? This is exactly what Dave Burnahm (All-American back from Wheaton College) did 4 years ago. Did you also hear of anyone putting first things first place in their lives? This is why Dave Burnahm refused all of those contracts. He made the decision between playing football on Sundays and preaching on Sundays. He became a pastor. (The National Football League plays all but a few of their games on Sundays).

Dave Burnahm was the speaker at a South Bend Y.F.C. banquet a few years ago. Former Riley football and baseball coach, "Spike" Kelley also had a part in this banquet.

S. S.

Many of you may have read in the Tribune Sunday, where football coach, Jim Whitmer thinks that Indiana should have a high school senior all star game. The game would be played in August, in a big city: The North against the South. Write to, Letters to the Editor (2nd page) and express different opinions.

by Bob Bargmeyer

The Pinboys, led by Dave Fleming's 541 series, high of the lay, moved into 1st place in the Riley Bowling League with a 4-0 sweep of the Pinboppers. The Pinboys also claimed the highest scratch total of the day, 1695. They were helped into 1st place by the Swingers, who shut out the Alleycats 4-0 for the first time this year. The Swingers are now 1/2 point behind the Alleycats, and 1 1/2 from the lead, and there will be a close race for the lead the next several weeks.

The race for first place is not the only close one, however. Three teams are close together for 4th place. The Pinbusters, in 4th, were knocked off 3-1 by the Cellardwelling Alley Aces, who had the 2nd highest handicap total, 1901 The Four Excuses took high handicap honors with 1925 as they took four from the Fireballs.

Six teams are battling to stay out of the cellar. At present there is a 4-way tie for the basement, with the other two only 1 and 1 1/2 points out.

Due to Thanksgiving vacation, there was no bowling last Saturday.

Wildcats drop opener; Downed by Senators; Beat Devils at home!

by Louis Swedarsky
Coach Lenny Rzeszewski unveiled the 1958 edition of the Riley 'sphereball' Wildcats against Gary Froebel. The 'Cats dropped a hard fought game 34-30. They next lost to East Chicago Washington 89-45. However, they won their first game of the season as they defeated Auburn 65-55.

The Wildcats got off on the wrong foot as they ushered in the new season at Gary. The lead seasawed back and forth and the score was knotted 19 all at the half. Froebel then proceeded to pour in ten straight points without return from which the Wildcats never recovered. Though they fought back gamely, their rally fell four points short as they dropped the season's opener 34-30. George VanDerHeyden was high for Riley with 14.

Riley next traveled to East Chicago where the Senators handed the team their second loss in as many games 89-45. The Senators' average height for their starting lineup was 6'4". The Wildcats couldn't cope with all that height. Although VanDerHeyden and Nevelle got their share of rebounds, the Senators firmly vetoed the Wildcats bid for victory by a score of 89-45. Glen Nevelle was high for Riley with 17.

Hungry for their first victory of the season, the Wildcats returned to South Bend to host the Auburn Red Devils. From the opening whistle until the final buzzer both the teams were in the thick of things. Phil Grundy put Riley ahead 4-0 early in the first quarter and the Wildcats never trailed, but they couldn't pile up a safe lead and led only 27-23 at the half. The second half was nip and tuck as Riley and Auburn traded buckets. Finally in the last minute of the game the Wildcats steadily pulled away as they registered their first victory of the 1958-59 campaign as they defeated Auburn 65-55. Herman West was high for Riley with 16.

Evanston rips tankers as streak ends at 25; four records smashed

by Bob Bernhardt
Coach Bosko Sarenac's swimming team opened up their 1958-59 season 13 days ago by bowing to a tough Evanston, Illinois team. The score was Evanston 60, Riley 26. The loss ended Riley's winning streak at 25 straight.

The Evanston team produced very fast times, by Indiana standards as they won seven of ten events, in which five events records were either broken or tied.

The Riley winners were John Buchanan, Dave Buchanan, and the 160 yard medley relay team of John and Dave Buchanan, Gary Kins, and Tom Carmichael. John broke the NIHSC record in the 100 yard butterfly with a sparkling time of 59.8 seconds. His brother Dave broke the conference record and tied the school record in the 100 yard backstroke with a time of 1:01.9. The relay team time of 1:28.6 broke the school record by eight seconds.

Evanston tied the 200 yard freestyle NIHSC record and broke All-American John Odusch's state record in the 100 yard freestyle. The time for the two events were 2:01.8 and 53.4, respectively.

B's win two of three; Petrowsky top scorer

by Darrell Stroup

Our B-team basketball team has won two out of their first three games under coach Don Barnbrook, splitting the opening two on the road, and winning their only home game thus far.

This all started two weeks from today in Gary, where the varsity under studies came from behind to defeat Froebel, 40-30. After trailing 10-4 at the end of the first quarter, Riley found the range, scoring 16 points in the 2nd quarter. From there on, Riley took charge.

After getting off on the right foot by winning the first game, Riley then traveled to East Chicago where they suffered loss number one. Riley was leading 28-26 at the end of the 3rd quarter; however, East Chicago Washington scored 23 points compared to Riley's 3 in the last quarter. Final score: E. C. Washington 49 — Riley 31.

Following this, came the first home game in which the B's defeated Auburn, 49-31. Tony Petrowsky leads in scoring for the first 3 games with 25. Don Smith is close behind with 22.

Cagers host Gary Roosevelt and Mishawaka; Wildcat-Maroon scramble is first loop game

Frosh capture opener; trample Greene 37-19

by Jim Jewell

Coach Lewandowski's first season as freshman basketball coach was opened with two victories.

The freshman cagers had no trouble in defeating two county teams, Washington-Clay, 38-27, on November 18, at Riley, and Greene Township, 37-19, on November 24.

Riley led Washington-Clay 25-11 at half time while using only six boys, but in the second half the fifteen boys who played were outscored by their opponents. The freshmen were never behind at Greene Township and led 15-10 at the half. All thirteen boys who made the trip were in the game.

The team consists of most of last year's winning Junior High team with several from other schools, plus Dave Fackson, who was injured last year, Woody Bradford, and Dan West. The newcomers are Joe Northern and Rudy Wade from Oliver, Lee Wirt from Centre Township, and Larry Puskas from Our Lady of Hungary. This year's managers are Wayne Linn and Tom Safrut.

by Bob Bernhardt
Lennie Rzeszewski's cagers host two NIHSC teams this next week as Gary Roosevelt and Mishawaka visit the Adams gym. Starting time for both games is 8:00 with the "B" games starting at 6:30. The Mishawaka game is the first conference contest for both Riley and Mishawaka.

Tomorrow night tough Gary Roosevelt plays our Cats. Gary has some experience and are speedy.

Mishawaka lost their first three games by 6 points to Plymouth, 16 points to E. C. Roosevelt, and 18 points to New Albany. The Maroons are led by 6-4 Larry Boone and 5-10 Barry Boulanger. Against New Albany Boone scored 17 points and Boulanger 25. Other starters include 6-2 George Luke, 6-0 Don Bidelman, and 6-0 Bob Mow.

Cats Led By Seniors

The cagers are led in scoring by seniors George VanDerHeyden, Herman West, Glenn Nevelle, and Phil Grundy. After losing their first two games the basketball squad started clicking in the Auburn game. VanDerHeyden is the leading scorer with 34 points for an eleven point average. Next is West with 30 points for a ten point average. Nevelle is a shade under 10 points a game with 29 points. Next is Grundy with 20 points. Bill Nelson and Bob Davidson with 10 points each. Rod Sipe has 4 points and Larry Wilson has 3 points. All above point totals are for the first three games only.
